THREATENED.

GANGSTERS EXCLUDED

Will Not Be Permitted in Courtroom

Vallon and "Bridgie" Webber Corroborate "Jack" Rose's Testimony.

New York, Oct. 14.—"Baid Jack" Rose's story of how Police Lieut, Charles Becker plotted the murder of Herman Rosenthal was corroborated on the witness stand today by "Bridon the witness stand today by "Bridgie" Webber and Harry Vallon, selfconfessed accomplices in the crime.

Bridgie Webber went further. He swore that the police lieutenant had told him that on the night of the murder he would have killed Rosenthal himself had he seen Rosenthal. Becker had told him, Bridgie said, that "he had slowed down his automobile while passing the Hotel Cadillac on Broadway in case Rosenthal might be lotter.

way in case Rosenthal might be lotter-ing there."

Would Have Cut Resenthal's Tengue

Out.

"If I had seen nim I would have backed him up against the wall and shot him." Becker said, according to demanded that Rosenthal be "crosk ed," that he had given the gunmen as surances of protection and that he sal-that he would have liked to "cut Ro that he would have liked to "cut Ro-senthal's tongue out and hang it up as a warning to future squealers." was corrobogated by Webber almost word for word, and Vallon supported him like an echo. The smillarity of their stories to that of "Bald Jack" Rose's prompted John W. Hart, attorney for the defense, to ask Vallon how many times he had rehearsed his story. "Never," said Vallon.

Was Promised Protection. Both witnesses told their stories solly and could not be shaken or coss examination. Both said they had seen promised protection, but not they would testify against Becker," "I was promised protection if would tell the truth," each insiste

Webber adding, "and also if I did no fire one of the shots that killed Ro-senthal."

Not Shielding Sam Schepps.

Attorney McIntyre, Becker's chie

Mayer Knew of Partnership.

That the attention of Mayor Gayno

Becker Fooled the Mayor.

The mayor, it appeared from the correspondence, had ordered a search made for the writer, which had proved in his answer entered a general denial and characterized Jack Rose as a tool who was giving him useful informa-

Justice Goff Threatened.

Prompted by threats against his own life, Justice Goff took drastic steps to exclude gangsters and gunmen from the courtroom.

The justice admitted tonight that he had received such threats both by letter and telephone and added that he

Court Assigns Counsel for His Confessed Slayer.

walk on the Princeton university cam-pus since he became presidential nonl-inee and for a while shock off the mee and for a walle shock on the cares of his campaign by assuming the guise of a football coach.

He was taking an alternoon strothrough the college town when he observed at the football field the sign "Secret practice!" The student gate-keeper did not halt the governor, however, and soon the nominee was the center of interest on the sidelines of the gridten where the orange and pire.

OBITUARY.

the gridiron where the orange black eleven raced up and d showing their best football tac

New York, Oct. 14,-Judge Swann in insuccessful, and Becker had be lered to explain the charges.

the features of the day's testing out of gambling graft.

The Bulletin's Circulation In Norwich is Double That of Any Other Paper, and Its Total Circulation is the Largest in Connecticut in Proportion to the City's Population

John Schrenk, a New York Laundryman, Obsessed With Idea That a Third Term Candidate Is a Traitor, Fired the Shot

DISARMED BEFORE HE FIRED A SECOND SHOT

Colonel Had Just Entered Auto After Leaving Hotel at Milwaukee When Flash Was Seen in Crowd-Ex-President Calms Witnesses of Shooting Who Raised Cry of "Lynch Him"-Did Not Know He Had Been Hit Until He Found Hole in His Coat-Insisted on Delivering His Speech Against Advice of His Physicians-Later Goes to Hospital Where X-Ray Machine is Used But Bullet Not Located-Bullet Entered Breast But Did Not Penetrate Lung -Wounded Candidate Left on Special Train For Chicago Shortly After Midnight-No Cause For Alarm.

Henry F. Cochems, one of the Wis-consin progressive leaders, told the great crowd which had assembled in the Auditorium that Colonel Roosevelt had been shot, and asked the people to be calm. The crowd was thrown almost into a panic by the announce-ment, but Colonel Roosevelt calmed the people by rising and assuring them he was not badly hurt.

"Let Me Alone. I'm All Right.

Shooting in Front of Hotel.

and about it was a big crowd, waiting

Cheered as He Entered Auto.

Assassin Shoets from Crowd.

Disarmed by Secretary Martin.

Col. Roosevelt barely moved as the shot was fired. Before the crowd knew left arm seized the hand that held the

Col. Roosevelt stood calmly looking on ,as though nothing had happened. Martin picked the man up as though he were a child and carried him the

Cries of "Lynch Him," "Kill Him."

crowd realized what was going on

crowd realized what was going on.
Then a howl of rage went up.
"Lynch him," kill him," cried a hundred men. The crowd pressed in on them and Martin and Captain Girard who had followed Martin over the side of the automobile. It seemed for the moment that he would be torn to pieces by the infurlated men, and it

"Don't Hurt Him," Pleads Colonel.

the crowd to fall back.

He raised his hand and motioned

The men in the crowd at first were struggle the assassin gave up and was carried without resistance out of the reach of the crowd.

"I'm Not Hurt a Bit."

"Are you hurt, colonel?" a hundred closs called out.

"Missed me that time. I'm not hurt a bit. I think we'd better be going on." he said to the other members of his

Did Not Know He Was Shot.

No one in the party, including Col. Roosevelt himself entertained the slightest notion that the colonel had been shot. He felt no shock, or pain party, or we will be late."

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 14.—Theodore cosevelt was shot in the breast here might by John Schenk, a New York undryman. The extent of the injury unknown. With a bullet in his dy Colonel Roosevelt went to the iditorium to make his speech. He dised to permit physicians to example the wound until he had finished his dress.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 14.—Theodore man, who was then taken into the hotel and held there until he was removed to the police station. In spite of the entreaties of physicians, Colonel Roosevelt insisted in making his address.

"I will make this speech or die, one or the other," he said.

Roosevelt Calms People.

Henry F. Cochems selved the man, who refused to give his name, and had him until policemen came up. A crowd surged about the prisoner, who is mentally upset on account of Roosevelt running for a third term. The man admitted firing the shot, declaring that "any man looking for a third term ought to be shot." In notes found in the man's pockets at the police sta-In the man's pockets at the police sta-tion were statements that the man had been visited in dreams by the spirit of William McKinley, who had said, indicating Colonel Roosevelt, "This is my murderer; avenge myself." Also in his pocket was a copy of the colonel's itinerary written on a sheet of note paper taken from the Bismark hotel and cafe, Nashville, Tenn.

COL. THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

The would-be assassin is five feet five inches in height, weighs 170 five inches in height, weighs 170 mobile, pounds, light complexion, bald, and fairly well dressed.

The Prisoner's Proclamation. A written proclamation found in the clothing of the man reads:
"Sept. 15, 1912, 1.30 a. m.—In a dream I saw President McKinley sit up in a monk's attire in whom I recognized Theodore Roosevelt. The president said, This is my curderer; avenge my death. "Sept. 12, 1912, 1.30 a. m.—While writing a poem some one tapped me on the shoulder and said: 'Let not a murderer take the presiden-ley's features,

"Before the Almighty God, I "Before the Almighty God, I swear this above writing is nothing but the truth." "Every Third-Termer a Traitor."

Another note found in the man'

"So long as Japan could rise to the greatest power of the world, despite her surviving a tradition more than 2,000 years old, as General Nogi so nobly demonstrated, it is the duty of the United States of America to uphold the third-term tradition. Let every third-termer be regarded as raitor to the American cause. Let t be the right and duty of every citizen to forcibly remove a third-d ballot.

I am willing to die for my country. God has called me to be his instrument, so help me God," pieces by the infurlated men, and it was Col. Roosevelt himself who inter-INNOCENT GUILTY" (Written in German)—"A strong Life Saved by Manuscript.

Colonel Roosevelt's life probably was saved by a manuscript of the speech which he delivered tonight. The bul-let struck the manuscript, which re-tarded its force as it passed through "Stop, stop," he cried. "Stand back don't hurt him." not disposed to heed his words, but at length fell back and permitted Mar-tin and Captain Girard to carry the man into the botel. After a short Prevented from Firing Second Shot. His assailant was prevented from Martin, who was standing in the ground. Capt. A. O. Girard of Milwaukee, he was on the front seat, jumped most at the same time, and in an atant the man was overpowered and

Cry of "Lynch Him!" wild cry of "Lynch him!" went Colonel Roosevelt spoke to the the and told them to spare the lassassin was safe in the hands of the Gry of "Lynch Him!"

A wild cry of "Lynch him!" went olice he gave orders to drive on to gone to Milwaukee will extract the Noticed Hole in Overcoat. They had driven hardly one of the four blocks from the hotel to the Auditorium when John McGrath, another of Col. Rooseveit's secretaries and fittered a sharp exclamation, and pointed to the colonel's breast. "Look, colonel," he said, "there is le in your overcoat."

Discovered Blood Inside His Coat. Col. Roosevelt looked down, saw the nayed at his discovery.

"It looks as though I had been hit, out I don't think it is anything seri-

Refused to Return to Hotel. Dr. Scurry Terrell, of Dallas, Texas, return to the hotel. He would not, however, and the car was driven on Physicians Urge Him to Go to Hospital. As soon as they reached the build-ing, Col. Roosevelt was taken into a dressing room and his outer garments were removed. Dr. Terrell with the help of Dr. John Stratton, of Milwau-kee and Dr. S. S. Sorensen, of Racine, Wis., who was in the Auditorium and came to the dressing room on a call from the platform made a superficial examination of the wound. The agreed that it was impossible hazard a guess as to the extent the colonel's injuries and that ald by all means go at once to

"I will deliver this speech or die one or the other," was Col. Roose-

Despite the protest of his physicians the colonel strode out of the dressing room and on to the stage. A large crowd packed into the big building cheered loudly as he entered and without a word to indicate what had hap pened went to his seat. For severa illet in his body, kept up its cheer

Then he began his address. Several times he seemed to be growing weak, and members of his party rose to help Then Mr. Cochems stepped to the front of the platform and held up his hands. There was something in his manner which had its effect on the crowd, and the cheering died sudden-

The shooting took place in the street in front of the Hotel Glipatrick. Col-onel Roosevelt reached Milwaukee shortly after 5 o'clock, and making his ly away.
"I have something to tell you," said
Mr. Cochems, "and I hope you will receive the news with calmness." way through the crowd which had gathered at the station, entered an automobile and was driven to the hotel. He took dinner in a private dining room on the main floor with the members of the party on his private nel Roosevelt has been shot. He

A Cry of Astonishment He spoke in a low tone but such After dinner Colonel Roosevelt went A cry of astonishment went up from to his room on the second floor of the crowd, which was thrown into conthe hotel and shortly before 8 o'clock fusion in an instant. Mr. Cochems he started for the Auditorium. His onel Rooseveit:

"Tell us, are you hurt?" to catch a glimpse of the colonel as he started off. With the colonel were Philip Roosevelt, a young cousin, Mr. Cochem. Mr. Martin and Captain Shows Blood-Stained Garments. Men and women shouted loudly. Some of them rose from their seats and rushed forward to look closely. Colonel Roosevelt rose and walked to the edge of the platform to quiet the crowd. He raised his hand and in-The crowd pressed close about the stantly there was silence.
"It's true," he said. Then slowly he unbuttoned his coat and placed his hand on his breast. Those in front of colonel and gave a cheer as he ap-peared. As the party approached the automobile, Colonel Roosevelt's companions stood aside, and he stepped into the car. Martin entered directly behind him, and sat on the further side the crowd could see the blood-stained Begs to Be Excused from Long Speed 'I'm going to ask you to be very quiet," said he, "and please excuse me from making a long speech. I'll do the best I can, but you see there's a bullet in my body. I'm not hurt bad-it." Colonel Roosevelt stood up, waving his hat in answer to the cheers of the crowd. The assassin was standing in the crowd a few feet from the automobile. He pushed his way to the side of the car, and, raising his gun, fired. Martin caught the flash and leaped over the car a second after the bullet aped on its way. A sigh of relief went up from the crowd and then an outburst of tu-multuous cheering. Thoroughly reas-sured by the colonel's action that he was in no serious shape, the peopleleaned back in their seats to hear his

His Gestures Less Emphatic. Colonel Roosevelt began to speak in what had happened, Martin, who is six feet tall and a former football player, had jumped squarely upon the assassin's shoulders and bore him to the ground, he threw his right arm firm voice, somewhat lower than its cteristic gestures were less emphatic than usual, there was nothing about the man to indicate his condition. After he had been speaking a fe moments, however, his voice san somewhat and he seemed to stand rather unsteadily. Dr. Terrell and Colonel Lyon stepped up to him and the doctor insisted that he stop.

"I'm Going to Finish This Speech." "I'm going to finish this speech," aid the colonel emphatically. right; let me alone." Terrell and Colonel Lyon sat down again. The colonel continued his speech, evidently with increasing ef-few feet which separated them from the car, almost to the side of the "Here he is," said Martin, "look at fort, but he succeeded in making himself heard and talked for more than an hour. Then he was rushed to his automobile and flashed through the "All this happened within a few sec-onds and Col. Roosevelt stood gazing streets to the emergency hospital, rather curiously at the man who at-tempted his life before the stunned Placed on Operating Table. The operating room had been placed n readiness to receive him and six of the leading surgeons of Milwauke were awaiting his arrival. Colonel Roosevelt was undressed and placed upon the operating table ough he insisted that he was no taking it too seriously. X-Ray Machine Used.

An examination of the wound show d that it had been made by a bulle of large size, It entered the fleshy parthe collarbone and lower ribs. The physicians found that they knew a more after this examination than be fore as to the location of the bullet, and it was decided to send for an X-ray machine to determine to what the missile had penetrated While he was waiting for the X-ray machine, Colonel Roosevelt sat up on the operating table and talked politics and joked with the physicians. Assassin Gives Name of John Schrenk. In the meantime, hidden away in an nner room in the police station, Col-onel Rooseveit's assilant was being submitted to a rigid examination. He refused to give in account of himself and would say nothing except that "I will tell you tomorrow" After a long slege, however, the no-

Goes to Presbyterian Hospital. Chicago, Oct. 14.-Roosevelt will be SURGEONS' STATEMENT. A Flesh Wound in Right Breast, Lung Not Penetrated.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—At progressive headquarters here the following mes-sage was received from Milwaukee, sent by the surgeons attending Colone a superficial fiesh wound in the right breast. There is no evidence of injury to the lung. The bullet is probably somewhere in the chest wall. There is only one wound, and no sign of injury to the lung. The bleeding is insignifi-cant. The wound has been sterilized externally with gauze by Dr. R. G. Fayler, the consulting surgeon of the Emergency hospital. The bullet pass-ed through Colonal Roosevelt's army overcost and other clothing and through a manuscript and spectacl-case in the breast pocket, and its course was nearly spent before it penetrated the chest. The appearance of the wound also showed evidence of a much spent bullet. Colonel Roosevelt a much spent bullet. Colonel Roosevelt is not suffering from the shock and is in no pain. His condition is so good that the surgeons did not object to his continuing his journey to Chicago in his private car. In Chicago he will be placed under surgical care. The X-ray phetographs have been finished and the colonel is feeling fine. He is seeing the newspapermen and presently will go on his car to start for Chicago.

(Signed)
"DR F. L. ERRELL,
"DR R. G. FAYLER.
"DR JOSEPH COLT BLOODGOOD "DR. F. A. STRATON."

SCHRENK A LAUNDRYMAN. Assassin Has a Wife and Child in New York.

New York, Oct. 14.—John Schrenk ormerly lived at the address given in the Milwaukee despatches. He is a laundryman who left here about a month ago. He has a wife and child here. The police are investigating his

Up to a late hour little had been learned of Schrenk. The information that he formerly lived at 370 East Tenth street was obtained from Mrs. Steve Aniko, who lives at 270 on the same street. Mrs. Aniko said the desame street. Mrs. Antko said the de-scription of the man who shot Roose-velt seemed to tally with that of the man she knew. She said Schrenk's wife was conducting his laundry on Avenue A. but up to a late hour Mrs. Schrenk'nad not been found.

LEAVES ON SPECIAL TRAIN. Colonel Roosevelt Wanted to Shave a Depot, but Not Permitted.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 15.-Colonel Roosevelt at the railway station in-sisted that he "was feeling fine," and that no one should worry about him.

tograph indicates that the bullet did not penetrate the abdominal wall, but not penetrate the abdominal wall, but lodged in what is known as the belly If the abdominal wall had been penetrated it would not have been safe for the colonel to attempt the journey to Chicago. The wound is not regarded as serious.

Colonel Sleeps on Train. Roosevelt Special Train, South Milthe special train pulled out of Milways felt that a private was to exwaukee for Chicago. He had taken some nourishment and said he felt at but I cannot understand how.

WALKS FRO MHOSPITAL. Feeling Fine," He Announces, After Leaving Operating Room.

Milwaukee, Oct. 14.-For an hour or street, outside the hospital, awaiting the news of Colonel Rooseveit's conlition. The statement of the attending physicians was taken out and read aloud. The growd started to cheer but it was suppressed for fear that the

"How are you feeling, Colonel?" said one of the local committeemen, when he came down the elevator from the operating room, just after an X-ray picture had been taken.
"Fine," announced the colonel, and as he passed along he had a pleasant word to say to those who greeted him, in turn. The colonel is said to be resting easily in his private car, May-flower, when he left.

AMBULANCE WAITING. All Arrangements Made at Chicago for Colonel's Arrival.

arrive here near 5 o'clock. Plans were "No Cause for Alarm." Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 14.—The pos-tive statement that Colonel Rooseveit was not injured seriously was made by Was not injured scriously was made by Dr. Frederick A. Stratton of Milwau-ice, one of the physicians who exam-ined the colonel. Dr. Stratton sald there was no cause for alarm.

cago.

Colonel Shaves Himself. Roosevelt Special Train, South Milon shaving himself, an did so despite do care for is my country, the protests of the surgeons who no. "I wish I was able to impretaken to the Presbyterian hospital on the protests of the surgeons who ne-West Congress street, where the four companied him. The train started on Chicago surgeons who were to have a slow run. It was planned to get to

Cabled Paragraphs

Barry Wins Championship. London, Oct. 14.—Ernest Barry o ingland, the world's champion sculler easily defeated Edward Hanian Dur-nan of Toronto in a race for the scull-ing championship of the world over ing championship of the world over the Putney to Mortlake course on the War Panic Checked. Berlin, Oct. 14.—The panic on the Berlin bourse was checked today by the energetic action of the leading banks, which after a meeting an-nounced their intention of taking over as far as possible everything throws on the market.

Bill to Bar Oil Trust

Berlin, Oct. 14.—A government bil' almed at the Standard Oil company is announced in the semi-official Nord Deutsche Aligemeine Zeitung today. The provisions of the bill are intended to bar that company from the whole-sale business in illuminating oils in BOYCOTT HIGH-PRICED EGGS 'No Eggs for Three Weeks" Slogan of the Thirty-Cent Club.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 14.—"No eggs for three week,s" is the battle cry of about 40,000 boycotters in Cleveland and northern Ohio who today began a cam paign to lower the price of eggs. Sat urday strictly fresh eggs were quoted here at 43 cents a dozen. Thirty cents a dozen is the limit the boycotters will pay. The Thirty-cent Egg club, which for two years has advocated against sky prices for eggs, has 20,00 nembers, and at least that many more sympathizers who will join in abstair

ELECTION RETURNS AT CHURCH Pastor to Offer Opposition to Saloon Election Night.

MacAdam, pastor of a Methodist Epis, copal church here, proposes to have a leased wire run into his church to furnish election returns. The pastor has also prepared an election night menu for the occasion, which will in-clude republican patties, democratic sandwiches, bull moese soup, and pro-hibition coffee. Mr. MacAdam has ar-ranged the affair in opposition to sa-loons which he said would offer election news as an attraction for patro

Chicago somewhere near morning, although the run could be made in than two hours in an emergency.

ROOSEVELT'S SPEECH. More Concerned in Other Things Than His Wound.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 14 .- "I do no care a rap about being shot, not a rap," said Colonel Roosevelt, in his to ask you to be as quiet as possible. I do not know whether you fully understand that I have just been shot, but it takes more than that to kill a sires to tion give my manuscript (bolding up manuscript declares 5 minutes before we left," he said, so that I could shave."

The colonel wished to shave, but at bullet went through and it probably

The colonel wished to shave, but at the insistence of his physicians he gave it up.

Colonel Roosevelt's special train left for Chicago at 12.50 a. m. As the train left, the colonel said that he would spend the night in the car and that after remaining in Chicago a few and the speaking engagements for tomorrow night.

Bullet Lodged in "Belly Wall."

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Philip Roosevelt, for cousin of Colonel Roosevelt, wires that further examination of the X-ray photograph indicates that the bullet did bullet went through and it probably saved the bullet from going through my heart. The bullet is in me now, so that I cannot maske a very long speech. But I will try my best.

And, comrades, I want to take advantage of this incident to say a solting and the night in the car and that after remaining in Chicago a few americans. First of all, I want to say this about myself. I have altogether too many important things to think of to pay any heed or feel any concern over my own death. Now, I would not obey a subpoena recently served on him demanding his presence at the hear-intered the subject of the Standard Oil—Waters-minutes of being shot. I am telling you the literal truth when I say that the bullet did. my concern is for many other things, "I want you to understand that I am ahead of the game, any way. No man has had a happier life than I have Havana is said to be the determinahad. I have been able to do certain tion of President Taft to let it be things that I wished to do, and I am interested in doing other things. I ly endorses Gibson for his activity in can tell you with absolute truthfulness that I am very much uninterested in whether I am shot or not. It was just as when I was colonel of my reviewed. but I cannot understand how a man fit to be colonel can pay any heed to his personal safety when he is occu-pled, as he ought to be occupied, with the absorbing desire to do his duty. collided with some traight cars on a trestle over the West river meadows in Allingtown yesterds.

"I am in this cause with my whole heart and sould; I believe in the pro-gressive movement—a movement for the betterment of mankind, the me ment for making life a little all our people, a movement to try take the burdens off the mankind, pecially the woman in this country who is most oppressed. I am absorbed in the uscess of that movement Friends, I ask you now this evening, the most part walked off.

When Colonel Roosevelt left the hospital, waffing, unassisted, there were only a few persons on the streets. with me personally. I am saying this by way of introduction because I want said to say something very serious to our when people and especially to the newspapers.

"I don't know who shot me tonight. He was seized by one of my stenogra-phers, Mr. Martin, and I suppose he is in the hands of the police. He shot to kill me. He shot the bullet I am just going to show you. (Colone! Roosevelt then unbuttoned coat and vest and showed his white shirt b I am going to be as quiet as possible, what party he represented-he was Chicago, Oct. 15.—The special train the crowd around the automobile and the strong Col. Theodore Roosevelt from when they cheesed me and I got up to bow, he stepped forward and shot made to have an ambulance at the station at 5 o'clock, but it is probable the colonel will not be removed from his car until a later hour.

Rooms have been prepared for him at the Presbyterian hospital, and all the arrangements made to remove the bullet. The operation will be in Chi-son and Mr. Taft. Friends, I will discovered by members of my party who at the contract of the colon will be in Chi-son and Mr. Taft. Friends, I will discove any members of my party who at the colones are the colones and mr. Taft. own asy member of my party who at-tacks or slanders any opponents of any other party. Now I wish to seriously say to speakers and the newspapers In and year out, make the kind of standerous, bitter and malevolent statements that they have made and not expect that brutal and violers treatment that they do not get from me; but I do not care a rap about be-ing shot—not a rap. I have had a good many experiences in my time, and this is only one of them.

Condensed Telegrams Fire Destroyed Property worth $55,.

The Will of ex-Senator P. Garvan of Hartford disposes of an estate esti-mated at $1,000,000.

More Than 52 Pounds of Ambergris, worth $30,000, were found by Dr. Elliot and George Bowas off Seward, Alaska.

The Strike of Trainmen which has iled up Georgia railroads has been set-iled. All the men will be taken back Kingdon Gould, son of George J. Gould, goes to the Missouri coal mines every day clad in overalls. He owns the mines.

A Further Rise in Wheat and flour

Senator John D. Works of California a progressive, announced in Washing-ton his purpose to vote for Governor Wilson for president.

Major Henry G. Cole, U. S. A. of the subsistence department of the army is dead at Washington of typhold fever. He was 43 years old.

James F. Meara of Torrington was hosen candidate for state senator from the 30th district at the demo-cratic convention yesterday.

As an Eleventh Hour Contribution to assure the erection of a $100,000 Y. M. C. A. building in Portsmouth, Va., Miss Helen Gould contributed $15,000. Trot day" in Cuero, Texas, when Gov-ernor Colquitt and his staff will lead a parade of 10,000 Thanksgiving turkeys For Writing Amatory Letters to the young wife of Henry Booser of La Grange, Ga., C. D. Philinot, a wealthy retired merchant, was shot dead by her Three Chinamen and a White Man were instantly killed, and three white men were seriously wounded in a men were seriously wounded in a shooting affray in New York Chinatown yesterday afternoon.

establish a miners' health and sanlia-lon bureau at Pittsburg to investigat-reforms and lessen the conditions re-sponsible for diseases among miners,

Cholera in Japan and small pox i

Spain were reported yesterday to the public health service. Guards have The Second Trial of Allison M. Mc Farland, charged with the murder of his wife by poison, was called yes-terday at Newark, N. J., before Chief Justice Gummere of the Supreme court A Contest Over the Will of Charles

Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the United States army de-sires to see more military instruc-

The Only Explanation for the re-

UNDERWOOD SPEAKS

AT NEW BRITAIN Declares That Democratic Party Not for Free Trade.

New Britain, Conn., Oct. 14.—Congressman Oscar W. Underwood o Alabama, was given an enthusiasti eception here tonight by a crowd that illed Hanna's armory. He made no filled Hanna's armory. He mad reference to the joint debate that been proposed between him and Con-gressman E. J. Hill, and devoted his speech entirely to the tariff question.

He said:
"It has been repeatedly said that am in favor of free trade, and that am in favor of free trade, and that the democratic party is in favor of free trade; the men that make that state-ment know it is false, or are absolutely unintelligent, because the democratic party has never written a free trade bill nor made a free trade declaration in its platform."

He said the republican party stands on the tariff where it did four years ago, and has falled to revise the rariff downward, despite its promises. Con-gressman Underwood said he believes in a tariff for revenue that will put the least burden on the people.

He believes in taking the tariff down, brick by brick, rather than blowing up the wall with dynamite."

Mr. Underwood said that he is a candidate for re-election this fall, and that if he is again put on the ways and means committee, every one who comes to the committee will get a fair hearing, but the man who comes with a threat will get no satisfaction showing their best football tacties. The governor's cousin, Figiams. Woodrow, is a member of the team Twenty-three years ago Mr. Wilso; was a coach at Weslevan universit, and later at Princeton. The governor's volve is slowly improving and a expects it will be normal again when he resumes campaigning Wednesday. The congressman's voice was husky and gave evidence of having througher, He left here for Hartford.

Orthodox Jews Form a Talmud Thora in Kansas City.

Frank Lane, Actor and Baseball Umup to the young men of Israel an example of perfect man, one to be smulated in character and example," a number of orthodox Jewish men here have formed the "Isidor Straus Talmud Thora.

The assemblidate is a straightful to the sample of John Lane, a tragedian and with his feet and a tragedian and thora. The association is created for the of teaching and study. Mr. Booth and Salvini. Later he and his wife were victims of in comic farces. Mr. Lane

Police Escort Harvester Trust Helped Wilson for Justice Goff

JUDGE AT BECKER'S TRIAL IS CYRUS H. M'CORMICK ONE OF CONTRIBUTORS,

"FRIEND" OF GOVERNOR

Underwood Campaigns-Interesting

Testimony Before Senate Committee

Washington, Oct. 14.—Upwards of $400,000 was expended in the efforts of Gov. Woodrow Wilson, Gov. Judson Harmon and Representative Occar W. Underwood to secure the democratic presidential nomination this year, according to testimony today to the senate committee. William McComba, whomanaged the Wilson campaign, and his aids, William McAdoo, accounted for $208,193.

Wilson's Harvester Trust Donation Of this sum, $85,800 was contributed according to Mr. McCombs, by "Clere

Ryan Helped Harmon and Underwood.

Of the $150,946.45 expended in the interest of Governor Harmon. Hugh L. Nichols, lieutenant governor of that state, told the committee that $77,000 was contributed by Thomas Fortune Ryan. Mr. Ryan also supplied $55,000 of a fund of $52,000 collected for the advancement of Representative Underwood's candidacy. Mr. Ryan will be a witness before the committee this week, probably tomorrow.

Parker Says Lamont Told Him. Parker Says Lament Teid Him.

Alton B. Parker, democratic carell-date for president in 1994, gave the committee his basis for the charge made on the stump in that campaign that financial "interests" had organized a committee to secure funds for and give support to the republicanticket. He said that the late ColDaniel S. Lamont gave him the information. He was corroborated by George F. Parker, who managed the democratic literary bureau in 1994.

No "Promises" by Wilson.

counsel, tried vainly to get them to admit that they had a motive of their own for doing away with Rosenthal. Each said they had taken part in the murder plot at Becker's beheat. Both denied that they were shielding Sam Schenes

Harmon Paid $44,000 Himsel Lieutenant Governor Nichole told t of the police department, showing that Mayor Gaynor had turned over to the police commissioner a letter charging that Becker was "getting richer than former Police." Commissioner than the expense to $146,000 in the national to $146,000 in the national campaign and that Governor Harmon supplied the difference. In addition to this, Mr. Nichols filed a statement of $1,064. Sollected and expended in Ohlo. The principal personal contributors mentioned in Mr. Nichols statement were in the first of the f

Not a Dollar from Morgan or Standard Under examination Mr. Nichols brought out that it had been charged in the campaign that J. P. Morgan & company and the Standard Oil company and contributed to the Harmon mad noted attempts in the courtroom to intimidate witnesses.

May Fill Court with Armed Deputies.

He gave orders to the court attendants to exclude all persons "acting suspiciously" or recognized as a suspiciously." suspiciously," or recognized as a gang-ster and required that newspaper ment and others having business in the court be admitted only on a special page. "If this is not sufficient," Jus-tice Goff declared, "I will have the sheriff fill the courtroom with armed deputies."

Senator John H. Bankhead outlines to the committee the expense in be-half of Representative Underwood The contributors mentioned in Statement were: J. F. Ryan, $1,500 Joseph Auerbach, $7,500; S. R. Ber-tram, $2,500; J. H. Woodward, $1,500. Small contributions amount to $1,500. Over $4,000 for Wilson in Mass deputies."

The justice was escorted to his home tonight by two uniformed police-sented to the committee the report of Miss E. M. Mitchell, treasurer of the Wilson campaign in that state, ac-counting for expenses of $4,006.60 in the pre-convention campaign. Frederick C. P. Enfield of Philadel-phia testified that his contributions to the Wilson funds amounted to $150.00.

New York, Oct. 14.—Judge Swann in court of general sessions today assigned James W. Osborne as counsel for "Red Phil" Davidson, the confessed slayer of "Big Jack" Zelig, gang leader who was to have been a witness in the Becker case. Davidson was arraigned on Saturday, when he declared he had no funds with which to engage councel. Pleading was postponed until tomorrow.

WILSON ON CAMPUS.

Frederick C. P. Enfield of Philadelphia testified that his contributions to the Wilson funds amounted to 115,091. This corroborated Mr. McCombs accounts. Senator Dixon of the Rossov velt forces last week testified that his information was that Mr. Penfield had no funds with which to engage council. Pleading was postponed until tomorrow.

WILSON ON CAMPUS.

Watches Secret Practice of the Princeton Football Eleven.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 14.—Governor Woodrow Wilson today took his first walk on the Princeton university cambridge.

What candidate was Thomas P. "Ryan for at the Baltimore conven-tion?" he was asked. tion?" he was assect.
"I have no means of knowing," h

"I don't know who he voted for, but it was my assumption that he was against Governor Wilson."

REMAIN AT BEVERLY Will Not Leave There Until Close to Election Time.

New York, Oct. 14.—Unless there is a change in President Taff's plans, he probably will remain at the summer pottage in Beverly until a day or two aboard the Mayflower today w reviewed the fleet he told that not expect to leave except to son of John Lane, a tragedian, and with his father appeared in productions with Lawrence Barrett, Edwin Booth and Salvini, Latter he approximation comic farces. Mr. Lane was at by had killed her lossband as he and then killed herself.